

SENTENCE-10 SENTENCE FRAGMENTS

Eliminate each fragment by making it into an independent clause or by combining it with an independent clause. If a word group contains no fragments, write "correct" after it.

Example: You can take the exam today if you want, ^{or you can} ~~or~~ take it tomorrow.

- a My husband and I always running out of money by the end of the month.
 - b Knowing that Jakob would be there. I hurried home to see my long-lost cousin.
 - c The Vietnam Memorial near the Lincoln Memorial. It was dedicated on November 13, 1982.
 - d My brother couldn't decide whether to name his first baby Edison or Harrison. After the inventor or the actor.
 - e The lawn needs fertilizer and seed in the spring. Needs mowing and watering in the summer.
1. Tisook said that when she returned home to Korea she'd miss milkshakes. Her favorite American drink.
 2. Avoid fragments.
 3. He knew what he wanted to do. To win a seat in the Senate.
 4. To keep your apartment cool during the day. You should close your draperies and blinds to block out the sun's heat.

5. Disposable income is income that is available for spending. After your taxes have been paid.
6. She didn't report the incident to the police. But slept with her light on for a week.
7. All afternoon, Chan searched the campus for a certain woman. The one he had seen at the dance the night before.
8. Pregnant women should not drink alcohol. Also should not handle cat litter boxes.
9. Ethiopian marathoners won seven Olympic gold medals in the twentieth century. The first in 1960 and the last in 2000.
10. Jorge hates cats. But loves dogs.